Policy & Procedure
April 16, 2023

Dear Family,

I'm 25 pages into reviewing our 47 page policy. There are a few minor corrections to be addressed as well as some areas where we could make the language a bit more cohesive. I have about 3 pages of notes. Once I'm through reviewing our policy, I'll type up notes and call a meeting to review those findings and anything else that an ad hoc committee suggests. Hopefully we can then present a motion with simple and concise language to address any updates or changes to policy.

In loving service,
Elizabeth S.
P&P

KRCNA XXXVII Report

April 16, 2023

Dear Family,

This month has been very successful for the KRCNA 37 committee. Our bank account was opened earlier this month at Truist bank. We chose the route of opening through an LLC because that is the route we were lead toward while at the bank. However, taking that route may cause some dilemmas due to taxes. Any advice from anyone who has had some experience with the same dilemma would be greatly appreciated. We have also opened a Post office box for incoming mail for the convention. Payment options that are available for registration currently are, cash, zelle, venmo, and cash app. Our treasurer is working on the Paypal account and obtaining card readers for future purposes.

KRCNA 36 was an amazing event. Most all of the KRCNA 37 committee was there. All assets that the 36th convention committee had was turned over to us and is currently in the vice treasurers possession at her home. We have yet to go through it, but plan to within the next few days. Pre-Registration was a huge success giving us a little over $1400. The Registration committee done a wonderful job and were all on top of their responsibilities!!

Our Programming Committee is currently exploring topics for workshops. Our Merchandise Committee is currently looking over contracts for outside vendors. Our H&H Chair is currently setting up a meeting with a representative from the hotel to look over a contract and possibly sign. If so, our future monthly meetings will be held at the Holiday Inn.

In Loving Service, Wayne P.
